

016 Lorena

Onward to the weaponized stage of building. Suddenly, as Lorena stood up straight. I felt my own spine straighten. I felt her power, her strength and I could breathe deeply. No apologies, no justification needed for myself or for my art. Lorena is not only sexually mature and proud, she is also strong and capable. She is resourceful, she has weaponized herself. This piece truly marked a turning point in the evolution of the series and in myself. Lorena would not hesitate to defend herself.
